21 CRAVEN STREET

Harrogate, HG1 5JE

A fantastic period town house revealing deceptively spacious accommodation arranged over three floors, including 2 first floor bedrooms and a useable attic space,

The property has been comprehensively altered from its original design with the addition of a ground floor kitchen extension, the addition of the whole second floor and the ground floor has been opened out to create a fashionable open plan living space.

Craven Street is a small cul de sac tucked away off the sought after Kings Road, which is well served by excellent shops & amenities and is within easy reach of the town centre itself.
